IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

SECOND APPEAL NO. 851 OF 2005

Shrikisan Maruti Pawar ....Appellant.
V/s
Sou. Indutai Anant Gulavani & Ors..... ....Respondents.

None for the appellant.

CORAM: A.P.DESHPANDE, J.
27/7/07

PC:

Defendant No.1-Indutai is wife of deceased Tukaram. The appellant and Tukaram are brothers. The appellant and deceased Tukaram husband of defendant No.1, had half share each in the suit property. It is the case of the appellant that after death of Tukaram his wife married some other person and thus wife of Tukaram is not entitled to claim Tukaram' share as successor of the deceased. Both the Courts below have rejected the case tried to be made out by the present appellant. The matter was adjourned on the last date i.e. On 16.7.07 with a view to find out as to whether appellant is agreeable to have property partitioned. There is no response from the appellant. No case is made out for interference in Second Appeal. No substantial question of law emerges for consideration. Hence Second Appeal is summarily dismissed.
